

IDEAL LEGNO

6 reasons to choose an Ideal Legno's flooring

1 nature inspires us

the pleasure of living
in harmony with the environment.

Living its own home in a natural way: that's how Ideal Legno think about you and your family. Nature is the inspiration with which the flooring are conceived and designed. The wood, chosen with care and respecting the human being as well as the nature, allows you to live your spaces in full well-being, involving all the senses.

The real respect for the nature pass also through the selection of the raw materials and the finishing treatments, even more than through their origin.

Smell of serenity.

freedom of choice

with Ideal Legno you can choose among several wood species and fashionable finishes.

Your style, your needs, your desires: our floorings meet the trends and the tastes of our clients. To choose a well made product and at the same time matching it to your own aesthetic taste, is one of our main goals.

The Ideal Legno's floorings present modern collections, but allows you also to range among the woods of the tradition, with original species and finishes. A continuous research in order to offer you a huge variety: the possibility to choose is not just a luxury, but instead a real freedom.

More than 60
exclusive shades.

art and technique

our wooden floorings are designed with exclusive projects.

It is in our dreams that the bigger and most ambitious projects transform themselves in unique ideas. Ideal Legno proposes also unusual patterns, which are suitable to different installation solutions, creating exclusive geometrical games.

An idea that can take place in any room of your house, with the warmth of the wood and the most advanced techniques, together with the competent hand of professional installers.

The touch of originality given by the symmetries is intensified by the wood species selected for you.

Style's
innovation.

100% Italian

floorings manufactured with care and handcrafted passion.

A 40 years story long.

Marigo's brothers founded Ideal Legno with the aim to create not simply a beautiful wooden flooring, but overall a well-finished product, produced with a meticulously attention to the detail and the knowing experience of the woods' artisans. The products are processed and finished by real woods' professionals: every detail is guaranteed by the Made in Italy, a constant responsibility, seriously taken by the company in order to offer you unique surfaces for your homes. And after 40 years it is the whole Marigo's family to continue with passion and professionalism the business offering quality wooden floorings, those that allowed them to become leader in the engineered wooden flooring manufacturing.

lasts over time

the safety of the raw materials used is 100% Made in Italy certified and guaranteed.

Choosing an Ideal Legno's wooden flooring you decided to bring in your home the certified quality of a product realized with the highest care, and conceived to last over time and to accompany you for a lifetime.

This certificate guarantee that our products are made in compliance with all the requirements imposed by the Institute for the Italian Manufacturer Association in their 100% Original Italian Quality System:

- Entirely made in Italy
- Made with Italian components
- Made with natural top quality materials
- Made according to the company's exclusive styles and designs
- Made according to the typical Italian craftsmanships and traditions

Well-being of living.

quality and elegance

you can see and you can feel the care
and attention we use when we work...

Every single plank originates from the research and selection of the best raw materials. Every wooden flooring is constructed with handcrafted quality and attention to details, in order that joints and finishes may always be perfectly done.

Every flooring laid down is Made in Italy certified and respect the several quality controls, that guarantee their strength and durability.
